

Job description

Position/Title	Energy Transition Analyst
Goal of Position	The Energy Transition Analyst will actively contribute in the advocacy and campaign efforts of the organization in line with the CAN Europe vision for a fully renewable energy system through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Acting as a technical expert for the update of Paris Agreement Compatible (PAC) scenario and the development of PAC country specific scenarios, including preparing recommendations for energy infrastructure needs, working closely with the Energy Scenario project manager and the Head of the energy team - Providing targeted and strategic analysis of the findings of the PAC scenario and other research relevant to the energy transition towards a fully renewable energy system, helping identify policy and campaign implications in close cooperation with other policy and campaign coordinators in the CAN Europe team, as well as with members and partners - Leading CAN Europe input to processes related to energy network planning and development and energy systems transformation, including the European TYNDP scenario process
Main Functions & Responsibilities	Provide technical expertise for the update of the Paris Agreement Compatible (PAC) scenario and the development of the PAC country specific scenarios <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Review the analytical work under the ongoing update of the Paris Agreement Compatible (PAC) scenario and the development of the PAC country specific scenarios, including assessing relevant results, data and assumptions on the basis of CAN Europe positions and providing technical input for the exchange with professional energy modelers and other external experts in collaboration with the Energy Scenario project manager ▪ Work closely with the Energy Scenarios project manager to ensure the CAN Europe’s collaborative scenario building process by participating in workshops, webinars and meetings with CAN Europe members and other stakeholders ▪ Contribute to briefings, reports, analysis in relation to the findings of the PAC scenario Provide strategic analysis relevant to the energy transition towards a fully renewable energy system

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Support CAN Europe policy asks and recommendations by distilling figures and findings from the PAC scenario ▪ Analyse, synthesise, summarise trends, facts, key findings, information and data relevant to the energy transition towards a fully renewable energy system to make them accessible to NGOs and a broader public. ▪ Coordinate and cooperate with other policy and campaign coordinators in the CAN Europe team, as well as with members and partners to help identify policy and campaign implications on the basis of the analysis ▪ Inform and represent CAN Europe network within processes related to the position’s goal ▪ Identify further research needs relevant to the position Lead CAN Europe input to processes related to energy network planning and development as well as energy systems transformation including the European TYNDP scenario process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Develop recommendations on energy infrastructure issues based on on the basis of the CAN Europe’s energy transition vision; draft and coordinate input for feedback to relevant consultations eg. related to the European TYNDP scenario process ▪ Work as an interface between the NGO network and the ENTSOs ▪ Support NGOs to increase their knowledge and engagement into energy scenario and energy infrastructure issues Representation and outreach <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Engage with EU policy makers and relevant stakeholders on issues relevant to the position, especially related to infrastructure issues Fundraising and reporting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Contribute to fundraising efforts related to relevant subjects. ▪ Regularly report on activities through the CAN Europe reporting system. ▪ Provide input to other fundraising and reporting activities Input to internal affairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Participate in team-wide processes and matters relevant to the organisation as a whole as required ▪ Support the preparation and implementation of joint events and network efforts such as the General Assemblies as required ▪ Serve as back-up for specific policy issues in cases of longer absence of other policy colleagues (on the basis of arrangements with the Director and other policy colleagues)
Time requirements	Full-time
Supervisory responsibilities	N/A
Line management	Head of Energy

Time requirements	Full time (5 or 4 days a week)
% of Time	Main team responsibilities
10	Administration and finances
10	Management and planning
20	Capacity and outreach
20	Communication and representation
40	Policy work and coordination
100	TOTAL
% of Time	Specific responsibilities
40	Strategic analysis and synthesis of information and data
20	Support and coordination
15	Representation
15	Fundraising and reporting
10	Internal affairs
100	TOTAL