- Experience in campaigning with coalitions, networks of NGOs or grass roots movements; ●

Working knowledge on corporate accountability and due diligence;

- We don't require you to know the ins and outs of trade and investment agreements but knowledge and passion in this area is expected.

- Experience with grassroots social & climate justice movements in the Global South and decolonial understanding of just transitions.
- Strong Project management skills;
- Additional European languages are considered an asset.

Job contents:

This position will focus on campaigning on trade issues, corporate accountability and due diligence.

Tasks will include:

- Developing campaign materials, writing policy briefs and reports, media outreach and organising actions and networking building.
- External communications: You ensure that our activities are noted in traditional and social media. You also write articles for our blog and website and reach out to external stakeholders.
- Campaigning and coalition building networking: You look ahead at upcoming moments and figure out how to make best use them to reach our campaign objectives. You maintain and grow our campaign network with a view to integrate new partners and keep existing ones involved.
- Internal communications: You keep our wide network of campaign partners and member organisations informed about upcoming campaign moments and ensure they have all the tools at hand they need to maximize our impact.

With this opportunity, we offer:

An open-ended contract, full-time or 80% of a full-time equivalent, with flexible working hours and the possibility of teleworking.

This position is preferably based in Brussels but it is also open to applicants from the European Union or those already in possession of a residence and a work permit. We are not considering sponsoring visas this time.

Remuneration is based on our Belgian salary grid and adapted to the cost of living on location.

If the position is based at our head office in Brussels, we will offer a Belgian open-ended contract with an expected salary of between 3.450,00 € and 3.650,00 € gross/month depending on the relevant years of experience (from 2 to 5 years) and subject to Belgian tax; Meal vouchers (7,00 €/day); transport costs; eco vouchers (250,00 €/year); sport and culture vouchers (100,00 €/year), phone allowance (39,00 €/month); work computer.

In other cases, it will be a consultancy contract or an employment contract, depending on opportunities on location, with a remuneration based on our Belgian salary grid, adapted to the local cost of living.
